Chiamaka Okoye
Product Designer

I am a creative, smart and Talented Designer with 2+ years of work experience in both infographics and product design. I am very passionate about designing and I take pride in my ability to empathize with users, conducting in-depth research to gain insights that inform my design process. I might not have a lot of experience with Product Design but am willing to learn and expand my knowledge. I am well-versed in design tools such as Figma & Adobe XD.
